I Will Dwell In Your Midst - Zechariah (July 26 - Sept 27)

Zechariah is one of the longest and more significant of the 'Minor Prophets' (the twelve prophetic books that conclude the Old Testament.) He ministered to the returned exiles as they rebuilt the Temple, and gave them great reason to hope in the promises of the coming Messiah. Zechariah is quoted or alluded to at least 71 times in the New Testament, making it an important book for understanding the connections between the Old and the New.

*"God's Word is a light to guide us, and we must follow.
It is water to wash us, and we must bathe. It is a mirror to show us our blemishes, and we must be honest. We don't just look at the Word to learn the Word; we must live by the Word."*

Serving the Living and True God - 1 Thessalonians
(November 15 - December 13)

Thought to be the earliest of Paul's letters, written to a young church made up of fairly new believers. It is a letter that addresses very practical questions about how the hope we have in Jesus shapes the way we live now, as we wait and long for his return.
